

NATIONAL PARKS AND ACCESS TO THE COUNTRYSIDE ACT, 1949. (PART IV).

Statement attached to the map prepared by the East Suffolk County Council showing public paths in the Parish of LITTLE WELLES

STATUS AND NUMBER	DESCRIPTION, WIDTH AND LIMITATIONS
P.P. 1	Sandy Lane. Starts at "Admirals Head" and ends at K.S. now bottom of Richards Drive Between the school and Grove Farm Cottages. Width - about 8 ft., and is used by vehicles. Non-existent

Relevant Date (for official use) Serial No. of each path as shown on Map 1. Symbol distinguishing kind of path P.P.	EAST SUFFOLK COUNTY COUNCIL NATIONAL PARKS AND ACCESS TO THE COUNTRYSIDE ACT, 1949 STATEMENT TO BE ATTACHED TO THE DRAFT MAP	Rural District of Deben Parish. It. Bealings Sheet No. 150
Name of path, (if any) point of commencement, particulars of route and point of termination.	Sandy Lane. Starts at "Admirals Head" and ends at K.G. between the School and Grove Farm Cottages.
Brief note of grounds for alleging the path to be public, including reference to any parish records or other documents consulted.	Used by the public for at least 50 years as of right and without interruption.
Special features occurring on the path, i.e. nature and position of obstructions such as stiles and gates, etc., full wording and position of notice boards.	K.G. exists where path joins footpath No. 3.
Brief note of general condition of path and whether it is clearly defined.	The path is in fair condition is clearly defined and bounded on both sides by fences.
Brief note of any section that is ploughed or alternatively made up with a metalled surface.	None.
Has the path any recognised width? If so give particulars.	Yes - about 8 ft. and is used by vehicles.
General observations (if any) regarding limitations or conditions affecting the path.	None.
Date of survey and names and addresses of persons making survey.	Surveyed by J. R. Moyle, Corner Patch, It. Bealings on March 18th 1951.

P.P.1a

Church Path starts at entrance to churchyard and continues through the churchyard behind the school and joins P.P. No. 1 between the school and Grove Farm Cottages. Width - about 3 ft., but owing to condition it is only wide enough for one person.

Relevant Date (for official use)	EAST SUFFOLK COUNTY COUNCIL		Rural District of Daben
Serial No. of each path as shown on map	T.A		Parish Lt. Bealings
Symbol distinguishing kind of path	P.P.		Sheet No. 150
NATIONAL PARKS AND ACCESS TO THE COUNTRYSIDE ACT, 1949		STATEMENT TO BE ATTACHED TO THE DRAFT MAP
Name of path, if any; point of commencement, particulars of route and point of termination.	Church Path. Starts at entrance to Churchyard and continues through the Churchyard behind the School and joins F.P. No. 1 between the School and Grove Farm Cottages.
Brief note of grounds for alleging the path to be public, including reference to any parish records or other documents consulted.	Used by the public for at least 50 years as of right and without interruption.
Special features occurring on the path, i.e. nature and position of obstructions such as stiles and gates, etc., full wording and position of notice boards.	K.G. at either side of Churchyard.
Brief note of general condition of path and whether it is clearly defined.	The path is very good through the Churchyard but remainder is very bad. It is clearly defined by a hedge on each side.
Brief note of any section that is ploughed or alternatively made up with a metalled surface.	None.
Has the path any recognised width? If so give particulars.	Yes about 3 ft but owing to condition it is only wide enough for one person.
General observations (if any) regarding limitations or conditions affecting the path.	None.
Date of survey and names and addresses of persons making survey.	Surveyed by J. R. Moyle Corner Patch Lt. Bealings on March 18th 1951.

F.P. 2

Sandy Lane. Starts opposite K.C. where F.P. No. 1 ends and continues to (K.C.) at entrance to osier bed and then on to Mill Run, Playford.
Width - about 6 ft., and is used by vehicles as far as "Corner Patch".

Relevant Date (for official use)		EAST SUFFOLK COUNTY COUNCIL NATIONAL PARKS AND ACCESS TO THE COUNTRYSIDE ACT, 1949 STATEMENT TO BE ATTACHED TO THE DRAFT / MAP		Rural District of Deben Parish It. Dealings Sheet No. 150
Serial No. of each path as shown on Map L.	Symbol distinguishing Kind of path F.P.	Sandy Lane. Starts opposite K.G. where F.P. No. 1 ends and continues to (K.G.) at entrance to Osier Bed and then on to Hill Farm Playford.
Name of path, if any, point of commencement, particulars of route and point of termination.	Brief note of grounds for alleging the path to be public, including reference to any parish records or other documents consulted.	Used by the public for at least 50 years as of right and without interruption.
Special features occurring on the path, i.e. nature and position of obstructions such as stile and gates, etc., full wording and position of notice boards.	Brief note of general condition of path and whether it is clearly defined.	(K.G.) formerly existed where path enters Osier Bed.
Brief note of any section that is ploughed or alternatively made up with a metalled surface.	Has the path any recognised width? If so give particulars.	The path is the same as F.P. No. 1 as far as Bungalow known as Corner Patch thereafter it deteriorates. It is clearly defined and bounded by fences on both sides. None.
General observations (if any) regarding limitations or conditions affecting the path.	Date of survey and names and addresses of persons making survey.	Yes about 8 ft and is used by vehicles as far as "Corner Patch". None. Surveyed by J. R. Moyle Corner Patch It. Dealings on March 18th 1951.

E.P. 3

No name. Starts at R.C. where F.P. No. 1 ends, through housing estate continues along the edge of cultivated land as far as cottages and then follows the hedge as far as the bottom of the garden of 6th Council House then across the middle of a cultivated field to a R.C. near Playford Mount.

Width - From start to cottages only wide enough for one person to walk. From cottages to Council House about 5 ft.

Relevant Date (for official use)	EAST SUFFOLK COUNTY COUNCIL		Rural District of	Deben
Serial No. of each path as shown on Map	3		Parish	It. Bealings
Symbol distinguishing kind of path	T.P.		Sheet No.	150.
STATEMENT TO BE ATTACHED TO THE DRAFT MAP
Name of path, (if any) point of commencement, particulars of route and point of termination.	No. name. Starts at K.G. where P.P. No. 1 ends continues along the edge of cultivated land as far as cottages and then follows the hedge as far as the bottom of the garden of 1st Council house then across the middle of a cultivated field to a K.G. Near Playford Mount.
Brief note of grounds for alleging the path to be public, including reference to any parish records or other documents consulted.	Used by the public for at least 50 years as of right and without interruption.
Special features occurring on the path, i.e. nature and position of obstructions such as stiles and gates, etc., full wording and position of notice boards.	K.G. at start. (K.G.) at Council House. K.G. at Playford Mount.
Brief note of general condition of path and whether it is clearly defined.	The path is in fair condition as far as Council House and well defined by a hedge on one side and cultivated land or cottages on the other. From the Council House garden in Playford Mount the field is cultivated and there is no trace of the path.
Brief note of any section that is ploughed or alternatively made up with a metalled surface.	From Council House to Playford Mount the path is ploughed up and has been for many years
Has the path any recognised width? If so give particulars.	From start to Cottages only wide enough for one person to walk. From cottages to Council House about 5 ft.
General observations (if any) regarding limitations or conditions affecting the path.	Apart from the custom of the Farmer to plough a section of the path it is not subject to any limitations or conditions.
Date of survey and names and addresses of persons making survey.	Surveyed by J.R. Moyle Corner Patch It. Bealings on March 18th 1951.

T.P. 5

No name. Point of commencement: Holly Lane, Little Bealings, north side of road opposite Little Bealings Rectory. Running in a N.W. direction to the Great Bealings boundary.

Relevant Date (for official use) Serial No. of each path as shown on map 5. Symbol distinguishing kind of path F.P.	EAST SUFFOLK COUNTY COUNCIL NATIONAL PARKS AND ACCESS TO THE COUNTRYSIDE ACT, 1949 STATEMENT TO BE ATTACHED TO THE DRAFT MAP	Rural District of Deben Parish Little Bealings Sheet No. 150
Name of path, (if any), point of commencement, particulars of route and point of termination.	No Name: Point of commencement; Holly Lane Little Bealings North side of road opposite Little Bealings Rectory. Running in a westerly direction to the Great Bealings Boundary.
Brief note of grounds for alleging the path to be public, including reference to any parish records or other documents consulted.	Known to have been in existence over 80 years.
Special features occurring on the path, its nature and position of obstructions such as stiles and gates, etc., full wording and position of notice boards.	2 stiles to fences enclosing part of field used as nursery.
Brief note of general condition of path and whether it is clearly defined.	Not clearly defined.
Brief note of any section that is ploughed or alternatively made up with a metalled surface.	Partly ploughed up.
Has the path any recognised width? If so give particulars.	No recognised width.
General observations (if any) regarding limitations or conditions affecting the path.
Date of survey and names and addresses of persons making survey.	17th March 1951 A. H. Dickinson "Valeat" Little Bealings Suffolk. T. H. Ward Oak Tree Cottage Lt. Bealings.

P.P. 6

No name. Point of commencement West side of road opposite drive entrance to Moor Farm. Running in N.W. direction and joining No. 5.

Relevant Date (for official use) Serial No. of each path as shown on map 6 Symbol distinguishing kind of path F.P.	EAST. SUFFOLK COUNTY COUNCIL NATIONAL PARKS AND ACCESS TO THE COUNTRYSIDE ACT, 1949 STATEMENT TO BE ATTACHED TO THE DRAFT / MAP	Rural District of Deben Parish Little Bealings Sheet No. 150.
Name of path, (if any), point of commencement, particulars of route and point of termination.	No name, Point of commencement West side of road opposite drive entrance to Manor Farm running in a Westerly direction to the Great Bealings boundary.
Brief note of grounds for alleging the path to be public, including reference to any parish records or other documents consulted.	Known to have been in existence over 50 years.
Special features occurring on the path, i.e. nature and position of obstructions such as stiles and gates, etc., full wording and position of notice boards.	No stiles or gates now in existence.
Brief note of general condition of path and whether it is clearly defined.	Not clearly defined.
Brief note of any section that is ploughed or alternatively made up with a metalled surface.	Partly ploughed.
Has the path any recognised width? If so give particulars.	No recognised width
General observations (if any) regarding limitations or conditions affecting the path.
Date of survey and names and addresses of persons making survey.	17th March 1951 A. H. Dickinson Valcott Little Bealings Suffolk F.H. Ward Little Bealings.

P.P. 7

No name. Point of commencement east side of road opposite Admiral Head Inn. Running in an easterly direction and connecting with P.P. No. 8.

Relevant Date (for official use) Serial No. of each path as shown on Map 7. Symbol distinguishing kind of path F.P.		EAST SUFFOLK COUNTY COUNCIL NATIONAL PARKS AND ACCESS TO THE COUNTRYSIDE ACT, 1949 STATEMENT TO BE ATTACHED TO THE DRAFT / MAP		Rural District of Deben Parish Little Bealings Sheet No. 150
Name of path, if any, point of commencement, particulars of route and point of termination.		No Name. Point of commencement East side of road opposite Admirals Head Inn Running in an Easterly direction and connecting with F.P. No. 8.
Brief note of grounds for alleging the path to be public, including reference to any parish records or other documents consulted.		Known to have been in existence over 80 years.
Special features occurring on the path, i.e. nature and position of obstructions such as stiles and gates, etc., full wording and position of notice boards.		No obstructions.
Brief note of general condition of path and whether it is clearly defined.		Clearly defined.
Brief note of any section that is ploughed or alternatively made up with a metalled surface.		Made up with a metalled surface.
Has the path any recognised width? If so give particulars.		No recognised width
General observations (if any) regarding limitations or conditions affecting the path.
Date of survey and names and addresses of persons making survey.		1951 19th March A.H. Dickinson Valcott Little Bealings Suffolk. F. H. Ward Oak Tree Cottage Little Bealings.

P.P. 8

To name. Continuation of No. 7 running in an easterly direction to the Hartman boundary, 12 in Great Dealings.

Relevant Date (for official use) Serial No. of each path as shown on map 8 Symbol distinguishing kind of path PP	EAST SUFFOLK COUNTY COUNCIL NATIONAL PARKS AND ACCESS TO THE COUNTRYSIDE ACT, 1949 STATEMENT TO BE ATTACHED TO THE DRAFT MAP		Rural District of Deben Parish Little Bealings Sheet No. (151 150
Name of path, (if any), point of commencement, particulars of route and point of termination.	No Name: Continuation of No. 7 running in an Easterly direction to the Martlesham boundary
Brief note of grounds for alleging the path to be public, including reference to any parish records or other documents consulted.	Known to have been in existence over 80 years.
Special features occurring on the path, i.e. nature and position of obstructions such as stiles and gates; etc.; full wording and position of notice boards.	Kissing Gate entrance to 1st field. 2 stiles between fields, barbed wire fence.
Brief note of general condition of path and whether it is clearly defined.	Not clearly defined.
Brief note of any section that is ploughed or alternatively made up with a metalled surface.	Part ploughed up
Has the path any recognised width? If so give particulars.	No recognised width.
General observations (if any) regarding limitations or conditions affecting the path.
Date of survey and names and addresses of persons making survey.	19th March 1951. A. H. Dickinson Valcott Little Bealings Suffolk. F. H. Ward Oak Tree Cottage Lt. Bealings.

P.R. 8a

No name. Commencing at Drive way to Manor Farm on P.H. ?
east side of road running in a south-easterly direction and connecting with No. 7 and No. 8 at kissing gate.

Relevant Date (for official use) Serial No. of each path as shown on Map Symbol distinguishing kind of path	EAST SUFFOLK COUNTY COUNCIL NATIONAL PARKS AND ACCESS TO THE COUNTRYSIDE ACT, 1949 STATEMENT TO BE ATTACHED TO THE DRAFT MAP	Rural District of Deben Parish Little Bealings Sheet No. 150
Name of path, (if any) point of commencement, particulars of route and point of termination.	No Name. Commencing at Drive way to Manor Farm on East side of Road Running in an Easterly direction and connecting with No.7 & No.8 at Kissing Gate.
Brief note of grounds for alleging the path to be public, including reference to any parish records or other documents consulted.	Known to have been in existence over 20 years.
Special features occurring on the path, i.e. nature and position of obstructions such as stile and gates, etc., full wording and position of notice boards.	No obstructions.
Brief note of general condition of path and whether it is clearly defined.	Clearly defined.
Brief note of any section that is ploughed or alternatively made up with a metalled surface.	Made up with metalled surface.
Has the path any recognised width? If so give particulars.	No recognised width.
General observations (if any) regarding limitations or conditions affecting the path.
Date of survey and names and addresses of persons making survey.	1951 19th March A.H. Dickinson "Valcot" Little Bealings Suffolk T.H. Ward Oak Tree Cottage Lt. Bealings.

P.2.13

Commences at a farmyard - continues across grassland and terminates at junction with path 14 as shown on map.

Relevant Date (for official use)	EAST SUFFOLK COUNTY COUNCIL		Rural District of DEREN
Serial No. of each path as shown on map	22		Parish LITTLE BEALINGS
Symbol distinguishing kind of path	N.P.		Sheet No. Suffolk (E) LXXVI N.W. No. 150
Name of path, (if any) point of commencement, particulars of route and point of termination.		STATEMENT TO BE ATTACHED TO THE DRAFT MAP
Brief note of grounds for alleging the path to be public, including reference to any parish records or other documents consulted.		Starts at a point about 500 yds. on the west side of Bealings-Kesgrave road. Path runs across grassland and terminates at farm buildings.
Special features occurring on the path, i.e. nature and position of obstructions such as stiles and gates, etc., full wording and position of notice boards.		Has been in use by the public for over 40 years.
Brief note of general condition of path and whether it is clearly defined.		Padlocked gate on Kesgrave road. About 200 yards beyond this gate there is a barbed-wire fence. At the termination there are strands of barbed wire by the farm. No notice board.
Brief note of any section that is ploughed or alternatively made up with a metalled surface.		The path is completely obliterated. At the beginning of the path there is a football ground, beyond which is grassland.
Has the path any recognised width? If so give particulars.		NONE
General observations (if any) re- garding limitations or conditions affecting the path.		NONE
Date of survey and names and addresses of persons making survey.		The path is non-existent
		17/3/1951 Brigadier P.L.L. Lindsey, Crossways, Little Bealings. Mrs. A.R.M. Daniels, Church Lodge, Little Bealings.

J.R. Lindsey
18/4/51

Relevant Date (for official use) Serial No. of each path as shown on map 13 12. Symbol distinguishing kind of path F.P.	EAST SUFFOLK COUNTY COUNCIL NATIONAL PARKS AND ACCESS TO THE COUNTRYSIDE ACT, 1949 STATEMENT TO BE ATTACHED TO THE DRAFT MAP	Rural District of DEBEN Parish LITTLE BEALINGS Sheet No. Suffolk (E) LXXVI N.W. 150
Name of path, (if any) point of commencement, particulars route and point of termination.	Commences at farm yard - continues across grassland and terminates at junction with path 14 as shown on map.
Brief note of grounds for alleging the path to be public, including reference to any parish records or other documents consulted.	Has been used by the public for over 40 years until it was cultivated about two years ago.
Special features occurring on the path, i.e. nature and position of obstructions such as stiles and gates, etc., full wording and position of notice boards.	There are no special features until it is terminated by a stile. No notice boards.
Brief note of general condition of path and whether it is clearly defined.	The path has been completely obliterated
Brief note of any section that is ploughed or alternatively made up with a metalised surface.	The complete length of the path had been ploughed prior to sowing in grain.
Has the path any recognised width? If so give particulars.	NONE
General observations (if any) regarding limitations or conditions affecting the path.	The path has free access to anyone wishing to use it.
Date of survey and names and addresses of persons making survey.	17/3/1951 Brigadier P.L. Lindsay, Crossways, Little Bealings Mrs. A.R.M. Daniels, March Lodge, Little Bealings.  11/4/51

F.F. 14

Path commences at Beacon House cottages, follows the Stet.
~~South boundary of Beacon House cottages, follows the Stet.~~ junction of path 13 as shown on the map at the Sink.
Width - from commencement of path to Sealings Hoo it is about 7ft. wide. From this point to termination it is about 5ft. wide. Discontinued

Relevant Date (for official use)	EAST SUFFOLK COUNTY COUNCIL		Rural District of DEEN
Serial No. of each path as shown on map 14	NATIONAL PARKS AND ACCESS TO THE COUNTRYSIDE ACT, 1949		Parish LITTLE BEALINGS
Symbol distinguishing kind of path P.P.	STATEMENT TO BE ATTACHED TO THE DRAFT MAP		Sheet No. Suffolk (E) LXVI N.W. 150
Name of path, if any, point of commencement, particulars of route and point of termination.	Path commences at Beacon House cottages, follows the south boundary of Laundry Cottages and terminates at junction of path 13 as shown on the map at the Sinks
Brief note of grounds for alleging the path to be public, including reference to any parish records or other documents consulted.	The path has been in use by the public for over 40 years.
Special features occurring on the path, i.e. nature and position of obstructions such as stiles and gates, etc., full wording and position of notice boards.	There are no obstructions. The path terminates with a stile.
Brief note of general condition of path and whether it is clearly defined.	Path is clearly defined and is bounded by a wire fence of the west side from Bealings Hook.
Brief note of any section that is ploughed or alternatively made up with a metalled surface.	NONE
Has the path any recognised width? If so give particulars.	From commencement of path to Bealings Hook it is about 7 feet wide. From this point to termination it is about three feet wide.
General observations (if any) regarding limitations or conditions affecting the path.	NONE
Date of survey and names and addresses of persons making survey.	17/3/1951 Brigadier P.L. Lindsay, Crossways, Little Bealings. Mrs. A.R.M. Daniels, Church Lodge, Little Bealings. P.L. Lindsay A.R.M. Daniels 11/4/51

P.P.15

Commences at junction of path 13 and 12 as shown on map and terminates at junction of path 14 and 15.

Relevant Date (for official use)	EAST SUFFOLK COUNTY COUNCIL		Rural District of DEEN
Serial No. of each path as shown on map	15		Parish LITTLE BEALINGS
Symbol distinguishing kind of path	F.P.		Sheet No. Suffolk (E) LXXVI N.W.
STATEMENT TO BE ATTACHED TO THE DRAFT MAP		150
Name of path, (if any) point of commencement, particulars of route and point of termination.	Commences at junction of path 13 and 12 as shown on map, and terminates at junction of path 14 and 16.
Brief note of grounds for alleging the path to be public, including reference to any parish records or other documents consulted.	Has been in use for over 40 years.
Special features occurring on the path, i.e. nature and position of obstructions such as stiles and gates, etc., full wording and position of notice boards.	NONE - No notice boards.
Brief note of general condition of path and whether it is clearly defined.	The path throughout the length has been ploughed and is indistinct.
Brief note of any section that is ploughed or alternatively made up with a metalled surface.	The whole section is ploughed
Has the path any recognised width? If so give particulars.	NONE
General observations (if any) re- garding limitations or conditions affecting the path.	Apart from the custom of the Farmer to plough across the length of the path it is not subject to any limitations or conditions.
Date of survey and names and addresses of persons making survey.	17/3/1951 Brigadier P. L. Lindsey, Crossways, Little Bealings. Mrs. A.R.M. Daniels, Church Lodge, Little Bealings.

J.R. Lindsey
P. Daniels
11/4/51

N.P. 15

Commences on the east side of Beacon House Cottages.
Crosses grassland and terminates about 200 yards on the west side of Neallings-Kesgrave Road.
Width - about 2ft.

Relevant Date (for official use)	EAST SUFFOLK COUNTY COUNCIL		Rural District of DEBEN
Serial No. of each path as shown on map	16		Parish LITTLE BEALINGS
Symbol distinguishing kind of path	F.P.		Sheet No. Suffolk (S) 100VI N.W. 150
Name of path, (if any), point of commencement, particulars of route and point of termination.	STATEMENT TO BE ATTACHED TO THE DRAFT / MAP
Brief note of grounds for alleging the path to be public, including reference to any parish records or other documents consulted.	Commences on the east side of Beacon House Cottages, crosses grassland and terminates about 200 yards on the west side of Bealings - Kesgrave Road.
Special features occurring on the path, i.e. nature and position of obstructions such as stiles and gates; etc.; full wording and position of notice boards.	Has been in use by the public for over 40 years.
Brief note of general condition of path and whether it is clearly defined.	At either end of the path are styles and no notice boards.
Brief note of any section that is ploughed or alternatively made up with a metalled surface.	The path is clearly defined.
Has the path any recognised width? If so give particulars.	NONE
General observations (if any) re- garding limitations or conditions affecting the path.	About two feet in width.
Date of survey and names and addresses of persons making survey.	17/3/1951 Brigadier P.L. Lindey, Crossways, Little Bealings. Mrs. A.R.M. Daniels, Church Lodge, Little Bealings.

J.R. Lindey
J.R. Daniels
17/3/51

P.P. 17

Station Meadow Path.

Point of commencement-Beelings Station) Direct route runs " " termination-Martlesham Roads) diagonally across a meadow.

Relevant Date (for official use)	EAST SUFFOLK COUNTY COUNCIL		Rural District of DEBEN
Serial No. of each path as shown on map	NATIONAL PARKS AND ACCESS TO THE COUNTRYSIDE ACT, 1949		Parish LITTLE BEALINGS
Symbol distinguishing kind of path	STATEMENT TO BE ATTACHED TO THE DRAFT		Sheet No. 150
	MAP
Name of path, (if any), point of commencement, particulars of route and point of termination.	Station Meadow Path. Point of commencement - Bealings Station } Direct route, runs diagonally across a meadow. " " termination - Martlesham Road }
Brief note of grounds for alleging the path to be public, including reference to any parish records or other documents consulted.	Common use for 80 years at least.
Special features occurring on the path, i.e. nature and position of obstructions such as stiles and gates, etc., full wording and position of notice boards.	At point of commencement - no obstructions now (five barred gate and kissing gate removed) " " termination - safety barrier erected by Parish Council in 1949.
Brief note of general condition of path and whether it is clearly defined.	Well worn and clearly defined.
Brief note of any section that is ploughed or alternatively made up with a metalled surface.	NONE
Has the path any recognised width? If so give particulars.	NO
General observations (if any) regarding limitations or conditions affecting the path.	NONE
Date of survey and names and addresses of persons making survey.	25/2/1951 Mr. E.L. Day, Woodview, Martlesham Road, Little Bealings. H. J. White, Wolfhound Cottage, Martlesham.

J.R. Day
11/4/51

F.P. 15

No name. Point of commencement north of Little Bealings bridge. West side of road. Running in a S.W. direction to Playford boundary.

Relevant Date (for official use)	EAST SUFFOLK COUNTY COUNCIL		Rural District of DEBEN
Serial No. of each path as shown on map	NATIONAL PARKS AND ACCESS TO THE COUNTRYSIDE ACT, 1949		Parish LITTLE BEALINGS
Symbol distinguishing kind of path	STATEMENT TO BE ATTACHED TO THE DRAFT MAP		Sheet No. 150
Name of path, if any, point of commencement, particulars route and point of termination.	No Name. Point of commencement - North of Little Bealings Bridge, West side of road running in a S.W. direction to playford boundary.
Brief note of grounds for alleging the path to be public, including reference to any parish records or other documents consulted.	Known to be in existence over 50 years.
Special features occurring on the path, i.e. nature and position of obstructions such as stiles and gates, etc., full wording and position of notice boards.	Kissing gate at commencement. Wooden footbridge over stream, kissing gate between pasture land, 2 styles to railway crossing, 1 stile between field.
Brief note of general condition of path and whether it is clearly defined.	Bad state at commencement. Not clearly defined.
Brief note of any section that is ploughed or alternatively made up with a metalled surface.	Path ploughed up from last stile to Playford boundary.
Has the path any recognised width? If so give particulars.	No recognised width.
General observations (if any) re- garding limitations or conditions affecting the path.
Date of survey and names and addresses of persons making survey.	18/3/1951. A.H. Dickinson, "Valoot", Little Bealings. E.E. Day, Woodview, Martlesham Road, Little Bealings.

J.R. Smith
18/3/51